

Mike Snow

Mike Snow and his family began attending Unionville Alliance Church (UAC) in 2006. He is married to Frances, and together they have two children: Daniel (20) and Joseph (11). They live in Markham, ON.

Born and raised in Nova Scotia, Mike came to salvation in Christ at a young age in the Church of the Nazarene, followed by baptism at a church camp during his teenage years. He married Frances in March 2001. Frances is the Human Resources leader for Hunter Douglas Brands across North America. Their sons, Daniel, is currently in his third year studying Geological Engineering at Queen's University, and Joseph is in Grade 6 at Wesley Christian Academy.

Mike received a BSc. in Mathematics and a B.Eng. in Mechanical Engineering from Dalhousie University. Early in his career, he worked for the Irving family in New Brunswick, where he attended a local Wesleyan Church and served as church treasurer. Prior to attending Unionville Alliance Church, Mike was a board member and church treasurer at Altona Road Church of the Nazarene in Pickering, ON. In 1989, Mike relocated to Ontario to attend the Ivey School of Business at Western University, earning an MBA in 1991.

Mike has held several leadership roles in growing international businesses, with experiences in the US, Mexico, South America, and Asia. Most recently, he served as COO of the Renewable Energy Group at Algonquin Power & Utilities, overseeing operations across North America and reporting quarterly to the public company board. He currently sits on two private company boards in the energy sector and advises two Ontario First Nations communities on energy and infrastructure investment. Mike has also served on the boards of the Alberta Electric System Operator, Ontario Tech University, and Markham Stouffville Hospital. He received his Chartered Director (C.Dir.) designation from McMaster University in 2015.

Mike leads an active lifestyle and enjoys spending time with his children, participating in triathlons, and playing baseball.
